

Introducing our GABWA QLD Team Member

Katrin Watson M.A.

Katrin was born in Erfurt and moved to Australia, in 2003, where she obtained post-graduate qualifications in communications and certificates in management and digital marketing.

Katrin enjoys building networks and collaborative communities. Her professional career has seen her lead a non-profit membership organisation for the past decade where she built a profile for their profession and industry networks. Katrin now works for the Federal Government.

Katrin joined GABWA in a volunteer capacity in October 2021 excited to help GABWA QLD re-set after the COVID induced break and is looking forward to meeting many of our SEQ based members.

With her passion to connect German-Australian professional women, Katrin believes that the exchange of ideas and experiences are critical to self-development and evolution of one's career. Having settled in Brisbane 16 years ago, she has had a career in communications/PR and executive management and now works in a fulfilling for purpose role at Indigenous Business Australia, assisting First Nations Australians in realising their economic aspirations. Katrin lives on Quandamooka country raising two young children with her Australian husband.
