

Introducing our GABWA VIC Team Member

Ingrid Nienaber-Dickens

Ingrid is a Corporate Communications and Corporate Affairs specialist with 20+ years experience in internal, external and marketing communications across multiple industries.

She was born in Cloppenburg in Lower Saxony and holds a Master's Degree in Communication from the Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster as well as an Executive Program and Certificate in Finance Journalism (Frankfurt School of Finance & Management).

In 2009 Ingrid moved from Germany to Belgium for a media and government relations role. After a successful three years she was seconded in 2012 to Singapore to lead a communication team across six ASEAN countries. Her most recent move was in 2015 when she personally relocated from Singapore to Australia, choosing to settle in Melbourne.

Her professional experience includes change communications, crisis and incident response communications, media and government relations as well as stakeholder engagement. She works for a large organisation, creating and managing content for one of their external target audiences.

When she is not working, Ingrid enjoys cycling, swimming and English history as her strategy to unwind and recharge. She is a multilingual individual, fluent in German and Plattdeutsch, English and with basic skills in French and Flemish.
