

Introducing our GABWA NSW Team Member

Claudia Genuttis

Introducing Claudia, a Cologne-born rheinische Frohnatur based in Sydney. Since her arrival in Australia in 2005, she spent her career in various law firms servicing international clients in corporate immigration matters, including business establishment as well as transfer and recruitment of overseas talent. With degrees in Australian Migration Law, Legal Services, Corporate Governance and Business Administration, Claudia is navigating the complex landscape of immigration law and corporate governance for internationally operating organisations. Her role includes legal translations to facilitate seamless communications between English and German speaking clients: She is further a registered migration agent (corporate) as well as an appointed Justice of the Peace in NSW. She is an advisor to multi-national corporations, global engineering and infrastructure clients as well as the global entertainment industry including streaming services and US film studios.

Claudia is a member of the Migration Institute of Australia and is serving as a Director on the board of the German Club Concordia in Sydney's Inner West. She is a familiar face in Sydney's German business community and always up for a chat. Claudia is a passionate facilitator of social engagements which makes her a great asset for GABWA. When she is not busy networking, you will find her savouring culinary delights around the globe. She is a great facilitator of seamless global mobility which makes her a great asset for GABWA.
